

SULZER TO FOLLOW WHERE BRYAN LEADS.

Believes It Is the Duty of Every Democrat to Support Him.

The Candidate Is Fearless, Able,
Conscientious, and Not a Creature of Trusts.

The Congressman Congratulates the Journal on Its Stand for the People.

NEW YORK DEMOCRATS WILL INDORSE.

And with Good, Faithful Work the Ticket
Will Not Only Carry This State, but
New Hampshire and Maine.

Congressman William Sulzer, in considering the Chicago platform and the nomination of Bryan and Sewall, knows no such word as "bolt," and is of the opinion that many of the Democratic leaders who stand silent here will come to his way of thinking. He believes that Tammany will lose the nominations, as will the State convention.

Mr. Sulzer looks to silver as the solution of vexed, industrial and economic problems that will bring the greatest good to the greatest number, despite the clamor out of Wall Street speculators. He will use all his energies to the coming fight, and is amply equipped by a long and extensive study of the money question.

NO DICTATION FROM A TRUST. The National Democratic Convention "Chicago," said he yesterday, as he sat in his office, "was a truly Democratic one, representative of every part and of the country. There was no money proceeding in it. It is the most honest without flattery that I have ever seen, and the fact that the money interests are not mortgaged to any interest."

What do you think of Mr. Bryan's "bait?" "Bryan," he replied, with animation, "is honest, fearless, able and conscientious, and if elected will make one of the best Presidents the country has ever had. In my opinion, there is no doubt as to his being the President of all the people."

Expect Anti-Platt Men to Help Them in Their Fight for Assembliesmen.

For if the State Should Go Republican the "Boss" Would Succeed Hill.

MAY BE TWO STATE CONVENTIONS.

The First Might Not Indorse the Platform, but Both Would Be for Stanchfield-Hill and Murphy-Cheney.

Normandy-by-the-Sea, N. J., July 18.—With the exception of a dip in the angry surf, Senator Hill spent the forenoon in earnest consultation with David McClure, who is in close connection with Richard Croker. The Senator left here in the early afternoon in company with Mr. McClure, to attend a conference at the cottage of Senator Murphy, at Long Branch. Those present at the conference, besides Senators Murphy, Hill and Mr. McClure, were ex-Lieutenant Governor Sheehan, Railroad Commissioner

the Utica District, and Mayor Francis J. Mulvey, of Troy, who is also a member of the State Committee.

The conference took place on the broad veranda of the Murphy cottage. It had been expected that Secretary Lamont would have been in attendance, but he was delayed by official business in Washington.

It was thought that Tammany and the Kings County Democracy might, as a result of the statement, make any improvement in the State Convention. It was this condition, however, that many of the Democrats would keep on endorsing the McKinley ticket, and that many of the Republicans would keep on endorsing the Bryan ticket.

It was thought that Tammany and the Kings County Democracy might, as a result of the statement, make any improvement in the State Convention. It was this condition, however, that many of the Democrats would keep on endorsing the McKinley ticket, and that many of the Republicans would keep on endorsing the Bryan ticket.

MANLEY IS EXPECTED TO-DAY.

He Will Establish Republican Headquarters Here—Fassett Fear a Free Silver.

Republican politicians who were in town tonight looked anxiously for Joseph H. Manley, the New England member of the Ohio Republican Committee, who was expected to arrive here to-day.

It is said that Manley will look after the New York headquarters for the coming week, if he does not leave here to-day.

ANNA MAKES A BAD STROKE.

Chicago, July 18.—The selection of Henry C. Payne, of Illinois, as commander of the Western forces may prove a deadly bad stroke of politics. It was a blow to the fight against the McKinley ticket, and a blow to the man who was instrumental in keeping the McKinley ticket from being elected.

When Senator Hill returned to-night he found that ex-State Comptroller Frank Campbell had been elected to the position of State Comptroller, and that the right-hand man of Senator Harris, of Tennessee, and also a member of the National Committee, had been elected to the position of State Comptroller.

At a meeting of the New York Young Men's Silver Club, at No. 24 Stone street, yesterday afternoon, J. A. MacKnight was elected president, J. W. Hughes treasurer and Gustavus Myers secretary. It was determined to begin active work at once, both in the distribution of literature and in the holding of public meetings.

A large increase in the roll of membership was reported, and speeches were made telling of the growth of the silver sentiment in New York.

CONGRESSMAN SULZER GIVES HIS REASONS FOR SUPPORTING CANDIDATE BRYAN.

DEMOCRATS PLAN HOW TO CARRY NEW YORK.

Expect Anti-Platt Men to Help Them in Their Fight for Assembliesmen.

For if the State Should Go Republican the "Boss" Would Succeed Hill.

MAY BE TWO STATE CONVENTIONS.

The First Might Not Indorse the Platform, but Both Would Be for Stanchfield-Hill and Murphy-Cheney.

Normandy-by-the-Sea, N. J., July 18.—With the exception of a dip in the angry surf, Senator Hill spent the forenoon in earnest consultation with David McClure, who is in close connection with Richard Croker. The Senator left here in the early afternoon in company with Mr. McClure, to attend a conference at the cottage of Senator Murphy, at Long Branch. Those present at the conference, besides Senators Murphy, Hill and Mr. McClure, were ex-Lieutenant Governor Sheehan, Railroad Commissioner

the Utica District, and Mayor Francis J. Mulvey, of Troy, who is also a member of the State Committee.

The conference took place on the broad veranda of the Murphy cottage. It had been expected that Secretary Lamont would have been in attendance, but he was delayed by official business in Washington.

It was thought that Tammany and the Kings County Democracy might, as a result of the statement, make any improvement in the State Convention. It was this condition, however, that many of the Democrats would keep on endorsing the McKinley ticket, and that many of the Republicans would keep on endorsing the Bryan ticket.

It was thought that Tammany and the Kings County Democracy might, as a result of the statement, make any improvement in the State Convention. It was this condition, however, that many of the Democrats would keep on endorsing the McKinley ticket, and that many of the Republicans would keep on endorsing the Bryan ticket.

MANLEY IS EXPECTED TO-DAY.

He Will Establish Republican Headquarters Here—Fassett Fear a Free Silver.

Republican politicians who were in town tonight looked anxiously for Joseph H. Manley, the New England member of the Ohio Republican Committee, who was expected to arrive here to-day.

It is said that Manley will look after the New York headquarters for the coming week, if he does not leave here to-day.

ANNA MAKES A BAD STROKE.

Chicago, July 18.—The selection of Henry C. Payne, of Illinois, as commander of the Western forces may prove a deadly bad stroke of politics. It was a blow to the fight against the McKinley ticket, and a blow to the man who was instrumental in keeping the McKinley ticket from being elected.

When Senator Hill returned to-night he found that ex-State Comptroller Frank Campbell had been elected to the position of State Comptroller, and that the right-hand man of Senator Harris, of Tennessee, and also a member of the National Committee, had been elected to the position of State Comptroller.

At a meeting of the New York Young Men's Silver Club, at No. 24 Stone street, yesterday afternoon, J. A. MacKnight was elected president, J. W. Hughes treasurer and Gustavus Myers secretary. It was determined to begin active work at once, both in the distribution of literature and in the holding of public meetings.

A large increase in the roll of membership was reported, and speeches were made telling of the growth of the silver sentiment in New York.

DEMOCRATS PLAN HOW TO CARRY NEW YORK.

Expect Anti-Platt Men to Help Them in Their Fight for Assembliesmen.

For if the State Should Go Republican the "Boss" Would Succeed Hill.

MAY BE TWO STATE CONVENTIONS.

The First Might Not Indorse the Platform, but Both Would Be for Stanchfield-Hill and Murphy-Cheney.

Normandy-by-the-Sea, N. J., July 18.—With the exception of a dip in the angry surf, Senator Hill spent the forenoon in earnest consultation with David McClure, who is in close connection with Richard Croker. The Senator left here in the early afternoon in company with Mr. McClure, to attend a conference at the cottage of Senator Murphy, at Long Branch. Those present at the conference, besides Senators Murphy, Hill and Mr. McClure, were ex-Lieutenant Governor Sheehan, Railroad Commissioner

the Utica District, and Mayor Francis J. Mulvey, of Troy, who is also a member of the State Committee.

The conference took place on the broad veranda of the Murphy cottage. It had been expected that Secretary Lamont would have been in attendance, but he was delayed by official business in Washington.

It was thought that Tammany and the Kings County Democracy might, as a result of the statement, make any improvement in the State Convention. It was this condition, however, that many of the Democrats would keep on endorsing the McKinley ticket, and that many of the Republicans would keep on endorsing the Bryan ticket.

It was thought that Tammany and the Kings County Democracy might, as a result of the statement, make any improvement in the State Convention. It was this condition, however, that many of the Democrats would keep on endorsing the McKinley ticket, and that many of the Republicans would keep on endorsing the Bryan ticket.

MANLEY IS EXPECTED TO-DAY.

He Will Establish Republican Headquarters Here—Fassett Fear a Free Silver.

Republican politicians who were in town tonight looked anxiously for Joseph H. Manley, the New England member of the Ohio Republican Committee, who was expected to arrive here to-day.

It is said that Manley will look after the New York headquarters for the coming week, if he does not leave here to-day.

ANNA MAKES A BAD STROKE.

Chicago, July 18.—The selection of Henry C. Payne, of Illinois, as commander of the Western forces may prove a deadly bad stroke of politics. It was a blow to the fight against the McKinley ticket, and a blow to the man who was instrumental in keeping the McKinley ticket from being elected.

When Senator Hill returned to-night he found that ex-State Comptroller Frank Campbell had been elected to the position of State Comptroller, and that the right-hand man of Senator Harris, of Tennessee, and also a member of the National Committee, had been elected to the position of State Comptroller.

At a meeting of the New York Young Men's Silver Club, at No. 24 Stone street, yesterday afternoon, J. A. MacKnight was elected president, J. W. Hughes treasurer and Gustavus Myers secretary. It was determined to begin active work at once, both in the distribution of literature and in the holding of public meetings.

A large increase in the roll of membership was reported, and speeches were made telling of the growth of the silver sentiment in New York.

DEMOCRATS PLAN HOW TO CARRY NEW YORK.

Expect Anti-Platt Men to Help Them in Their Fight for Assembliesmen.

For if the State Should Go Republican the "Boss" Would Succeed Hill.

MAY BE TWO STATE CONVENTIONS.

The First Might Not Indorse the Platform, but Both Would Be for Stanchfield-Hill and Murphy-Cheney.

Normandy-by-the-Sea, N. J., July 18.—With the exception of a dip in the angry surf, Senator Hill spent the forenoon in earnest consultation with David McClure, who is in close connection with Richard Croker. The Senator left here in the early afternoon in company with Mr. McClure, to attend a conference at the cottage of Senator Murphy, at Long Branch. Those present at the conference, besides Senators Murphy, Hill and Mr. McClure, were ex-Lieutenant Governor Sheehan, Railroad Commissioner

the Utica District, and Mayor Francis J. Mulvey, of Troy, who is also a member of the State Committee.

The conference took place on the broad veranda of the Murphy cottage. It had been expected that Secretary Lamont would have been in attendance, but he was delayed by official business in Washington.

It was thought that Tammany and the Kings County Democracy might, as a result of the statement, make any improvement in the State Convention. It was this condition, however, that many of the Democrats would keep on endorsing the McKinley ticket, and that many of the Republicans would keep on endorsing the Bryan ticket.

It was thought that Tammany and the Kings County Democracy might, as a result of the statement, make any improvement in the State Convention. It was this condition, however, that many of the Democrats would keep on endorsing the McKinley ticket, and that many of the Republicans would keep on endorsing the Bryan ticket.

MANLEY IS EXPECTED TO-DAY.

He Will Establish Republican Headquarters Here—Fassett Fear a Free Silver.

Republican politicians who were in town tonight looked anxiously for Joseph H. Manley, the New England member of the Ohio Republican Committee, who was expected to arrive here to-day.

It is said that Manley will look after the New York headquarters for the coming week, if he does not leave here to-day.

ANNA MAKES A BAD STROKE.

Chicago, July 18.—The selection of Henry C. Payne, of Illinois, as commander of the Western forces may prove a deadly bad stroke of politics. It was a blow to the fight against the McKinley ticket, and a blow to the man who was instrumental in keeping the McKinley ticket from being elected.

When Senator Hill returned to-night he found that ex-State Comptroller Frank Campbell had been elected to the position of State Comptroller, and that the right-hand man of Senator Harris, of Tennessee, and also a member of the National Committee, had been elected to the position of State Comptroller.

At a meeting of the New York Young Men's Silver Club, at No. 24 Stone street, yesterday afternoon, J. A. MacKnight was elected president, J. W. Hughes treasurer and Gustavus Myers secretary. It was determined to begin active work at once, both in the distribution of literature and in the holding of public meetings.

A large increase in the roll of membership was reported, and speeches were made telling of the growth of the silver sentiment in New York.

DEMOCRATS PLAN HOW TO CARRY NEW YORK.

Expect Anti-Platt Men to Help Them in Their Fight for Assembliesmen.

For if the State Should Go Republican the "Boss" Would Succeed Hill.

MAY BE TWO STATE CONVENTIONS.

The First Might Not Indorse the Platform, but Both Would Be for Stanchfield-Hill and Murphy-Cheney.

Normandy-by-the-Sea, N. J., July 18.—With the exception of a dip in the angry surf, Senator Hill spent the forenoon in earnest consultation with David McClure, who is in close connection with Richard Croker. The Senator left here in the early afternoon in company with Mr. McClure, to attend a conference at the cottage of Senator Murphy, at Long Branch. Those present at the conference, besides Senators Murphy, Hill and Mr. McClure, were ex-Lieutenant Governor Sheehan, Railroad Commissioner

the Utica District, and Mayor Francis J. Mulvey, of Troy, who is also a member of the State Committee.

The conference took place on the broad veranda of the Murphy cottage. It had been expected that Secretary Lamont would have been in attendance, but he was delayed by official business in Washington.

It was thought that Tammany and the Kings County Democracy might, as a result of the statement, make any improvement in the State Convention. It was this condition, however, that many of the Democrats would keep on endorsing the McKinley ticket, and that many of the Republicans would keep on endorsing the Bryan ticket.

It was thought that Tammany and the Kings County Democracy might, as a result of the statement, make any improvement in the State Convention. It was this condition, however, that many of the Democrats would keep on endorsing the McKinley ticket, and that many of the Republicans would keep on endorsing the Bryan ticket.

MANLEY IS EXPECTED TO-DAY.

He Will Establish Republican Headquarters Here—Fassett Fear a Free Silver.

Republican politicians who were in town tonight looked anxiously for Joseph H. Manley, the New England member of the Ohio Republican Committee, who was expected to arrive here to-day.

It is said that Manley will look after the New York headquarters for the coming week, if he does not leave here to-day.

ANNA MAKES A BAD STROKE.

Chicago, July 18.—The selection of Henry C. Payne, of Illinois, as commander of the Western forces may prove a deadly bad stroke of politics. It was a blow to the fight against the McKinley ticket, and a blow to the man who was instrumental in keeping the McKinley ticket from being elected.

When Senator Hill returned to-night he found that ex-State Comptroller Frank Campbell had been elected to the position of State Comptroller, and that the right-hand man of Senator Harris, of Tennessee, and also a member of the National Committee, had been elected to the position of State Comptroller.

At a meeting of the New York Young Men's Silver Club, at No. 24 Stone street, yesterday afternoon, J. A. MacKnight was elected president, J. W. Hughes treasurer and Gustavus Myers secretary. It was determined to begin active work at once, both in the distribution of literature and in the holding of public meetings.

A large increase in the roll of membership was reported, and speeches were made telling of the growth of the silver sentiment in New York.

DEMOCRATS PLAN HOW TO CARRY NEW YORK.

Expect Anti-Platt Men to Help Them in Their Fight for Assembliesmen.

For if the State Should Go Republican the "Boss" Would Succeed Hill.

MAY BE TWO STATE CONVENTIONS.

The First Might Not Indorse the Platform, but Both Would Be for Stanchfield-Hill and Murphy-Cheney.

Normandy-by-the-Sea, N. J., July 18.—With the exception of a dip in the angry surf, Senator Hill spent the forenoon in earnest consultation with David McClure, who is in close connection with Richard Croker. The Senator left here in the early afternoon in company with Mr. McClure, to attend a conference at the cottage of Senator Murphy, at Long Branch. Those present at the conference, besides Senators Murphy, Hill and Mr. McClure, were ex-Lieutenant Governor Sheehan, Railroad Commissioner

the Utica District, and Mayor Francis J. Mulvey, of Troy, who is also a member of the State Committee.

The conference took place on the broad veranda of the Murphy cottage. It had been expected that Secretary Lamont would have been in attendance, but he was delayed by official business in Washington.

It was thought that Tammany and the Kings County Democracy might, as a result of the statement, make any improvement in the State Convention. It was this condition, however, that many of the Democrats would keep on endorsing the McKinley ticket, and that many of the Republicans would keep on endorsing the Bryan ticket.

It was thought that Tammany and the Kings County Democracy might, as a result of the statement, make any improvement in the State Convention. It was this condition, however, that many of the Democrats would keep on endorsing the McKinley ticket, and that many of the Republicans would keep on endorsing the Bryan ticket.

MANLEY IS EXPECTED TO-DAY.

He Will Establish Republican Headquarters Here—Fassett Fear a Free Silver.

Republican politicians who were in town tonight looked anxiously for Joseph H. Manley, the New England member of the Ohio Republican Committee, who was expected to arrive here to-day.

It is said that Manley will look after the New York headquarters for the coming week, if he does not leave here to-day.

ANNA MAKES A BAD STROKE.

Chicago, July 18.—The selection of Henry C. Payne, of Illinois, as commander of the Western forces may prove a deadly bad stroke of politics. It was a blow to the fight against the McKinley ticket, and a blow to the man who was instrumental in keeping the McKinley ticket from being elected.

When Senator Hill returned to-night he found that ex-State Comptroller Frank Campbell had been elected to the position of State Comptroller, and that the right-hand man of Senator Harris, of Tennessee, and also a member of the National Committee, had been elected to the position of State Comptroller.

At a meeting of the New York Young Men's Silver Club, at No. 24 Stone street, yesterday afternoon, J. A. MacKnight was elected president, J. W. Hughes treasurer and Gustavus Myers secretary. It was determined to begin active work at once, both in the distribution of literature and in the holding of public meetings.

A large increase in the roll of membership was reported, and speeches were made telling of the growth of the silver sentiment in New York.

BETRAYED HIS TRUST, DESERTED HIS WIFE.

Detectives After Cashier
Myers, of the Carolina Central.

The Day He Disappeared Beautiful Mrs. Bisonette Was Missing.

Myers Was Interested in Her and Was a Frequent Guest at Her House.

HE WAS YOUNG AND POPULAR.

Of Late He Had Become Dissipated and Neglected His Home—Said to Have Taken $3,200.

The Pinkerton Detective Agency is looking for Joseph P. Myers, who until Saturday, July 11, was cashier of the Carolina Central Railroad, at Charlotte, N. C., and then disappeared with $3,200, the property of the company, and deserted his wife and children. A beautiful woman known in Charlotte as Mrs. Bisonette disappeared at the same time, taking her two children with her and leaving her handsome furniture and bric-a-brac to be attached by her creditors. It is known that she had a railway ticket to Jersey City, and her appearance there is eagerly awaited by the detectives.

Myers is a young and handsome fellow of excellent family, and was popular in society. The news of his downfall was a severe blow to his many friends. Mrs. Bisonette went to Charlotte three months ago, and after staying a day or two at the Buford Hotel, rented a house in South College street, where she furnished luxuriously, and began housekeeping. Myers met her by chance in April. She told him that she was the daughter of a physician in Anderson, S. C., and that while engaged to an estimable young man of that place had met a Dr. Bisonette at a ball in Florence. She married him in spite of her parents' opposition, only to learn that he had a wife living.

His lawful wife came to claim him, she said, and she, feeling keenly her position, was ashamed to return to her home, and so sold her jewelry and personal effects and went to Charlotte. Myers' sympathies were enlisted by her tale and from that time he called frequently at the pretty house in South College street.

DEAF TO HIS WIFE'S PLEAS.

He drank more heavily than ever before and was deaf to his wife's remonstrances. In a few days before his disappearance, in a fit of gloom and remorse, he told his wife of his infatuation. That night he went out as usual and Mrs. Myers conquered her pride and asked him to return. He was a friend of Myers, and he told him up. The missing man was not at Mrs. Bisonette's house. He came home intoxicated late at night, but was drunk when she put the morning in the afternoon he went out collecting and at 7:30 p. m. returned to his home and at 8 p. m. he was found by the police. He was taken to the city, the insurance policy on his life and $300 in money, besides his personal effects, were found on him.

TO BE SEEN BY HIS WIFE.

He was taken to the city, the insurance policy on his life and $300 in money, besides his personal effects, were found on him.

TO BE SEEN BY HIS WIFE.

He was taken to the city, the insurance policy on his life and $300 in money, besides his personal effects, were found on him.

TO BE SEEN BY HIS WIFE.

He was taken to the city, the insurance policy on his life and $300 in money, besides his personal effects, were found on him.

TO BE SEEN BY HIS WIFE.

He was taken to the city, the insurance policy on his life and $300 in money, besides his personal effects, were found on him.

TO BE SEEN BY HIS WIFE.

He was taken to the city, the insurance policy on his life and $300 in money, besides his personal effects, were found on him.

TO BE SEEN BY HIS WIFE.

He was taken to the city, the insurance policy on his life and $300 in money, besides his personal effects, were found on him.

TO BE SEEN BY HIS WIFE.

He was taken to the city, the insurance policy on his life and $300 in money, besides his personal effects, were found on him.

TO BE SEEN BY HIS WIFE.

He was taken to the city, the insurance policy on his life and $300 in money, besides his personal effects, were found on him.

TO BE SEEN BY HIS WIFE.

He was taken to the city, the insurance policy on his life and $300 in money, besides his personal effects, were found on him.

MR. & MRS. ROBERT E. MYERS.

Myers was cashier of a railroad at Charlotte, N. C.; was of good family, and popular in society. Detectives are looking for him on a charge of taking $3,200 from the company. Mrs. Bisonette, who was his wife, was seen at the day he disappeared.

Myers was interested in her and was a frequent guest at her house.

He was young and popular.

Of late he had become dissipated and neglected his home—said to have taken $3,200.

The Pinkerton Detective Agency is looking for Joseph P. Myers, who until Saturday, July 11, was cashier of the Carolina Central Railroad, at Charlotte, N. C., and then disappeared with $3,200, the property of the company, and deserted his wife and children.

A beautiful woman known in Charlotte as Mrs. Bisonette disappeared at the same time, taking her two children with her and leaving her handsome furniture and bric-a-brac to be attached by her creditors.

It is known that she had a railway ticket to Jersey City, and her appearance there is eagerly awaited by the detectives.

Myers is a young and handsome fellow of excellent family, and was popular in society. The news of his downfall was a severe blow to his many friends.

Mrs. Bisonette went to Charlotte three months ago, and after staying a day or two at the Buford Hotel, rented a house in South College street, where she furnished luxuriously, and began housekeeping.

Myers met her by chance in April. She told him that she was the daughter of a physician in Anderson, S. C., and that while engaged to an estimable young man of that place had met a Dr. Bisonette at a ball in Florence.

She married him in spite of her parents' opposition, only to learn that he had a wife living.

His lawful wife came to claim him, she said, and she, feeling keenly her position, was ashamed to return to her home, and so sold her jewelry and personal effects and went to Charlotte.

Myers' sympathies were enlisted by her tale and from that time he called frequently at the pretty house in South College street.

DEAF TO HIS WIFE'S PLEAS.

He drank more heavily than ever before and was deaf to his wife's remonstrances. In a few days before his disappearance, in a fit of gloom and remorse, he told his wife of his infatuation.

That night he went out as usual and Mrs. Myers conquered her pride and asked him to return. He was a friend of Myers, and he told him up. The missing man was not at Mrs. Bisonette's house.

He came home intoxicated late at night